The UD Department of English Presents

SUMMER MOVIE CLUB

Watch 8 captivating and provocative movies and discuss them with UD English faculty

Discussions: 8–9 p.m. EDT via Zoom

June 1, 15, 29
July 13, 27
August 10, 24

For more information visit www.english.udel.edu/events/summer_movie-club
Participants should watch each film before joining the discussion. UD credentials are required for Zoom. To stream movies on your computer, Chrome and Firefox are recommended. To stream on your smartphone or tablet, download the Kanopy and Swank Media Player apps.

June 1

Memento (2000)

Christopher Nolan’s bravura film about a man obsessed with solving a crime despite the fact that he suffers from a rare disorder that makes him unable to form long-term memories.

June 15

Dr. Strangelove (1964)

Stanley Kubrick’s black comedy about nuclear war features a virtuoso performance by Peter Sellers in three contrasting roles.

La Jetée (1962)

Cult-favorite New Wave short subject about a time-travel experiment, later remade by Terry Gilliam as 12 Monkeys.
June 29
A Star is Born (1937)

Oscar-nominated blockbuster about a movie star’s decline and his wife’s ascent—the 1937 film inspired three remakes

July 13
Dial M for Murder (1954)

Alfred Hitchcock directs this story of infidelity, blackmail, and murder

July 27
Diabolique (1955)

Classic thriller about two schoolteachers who spiral out of control when the corpse of the man that they have murdered disappears
August 10
Trumbo (2015)

Bryan Cranston stars as blacklisted screenwriter Dalton Trumbo, jailed after refusing to testify before a Congressional investigation into Communist influence in Hollywood.

August 24
Suspiria (1977)

Ballet students are terrorized by witches in Dario Argento’s over-the-top horror masterpiece.

SUMMER MOVIE CLUB

Discussions: 8–9 p.m. EDT via Zoom

For more information visit

www.english.udel.edu/events/summer-movie-club